will be decided by a single toss of a coin or by draw. The winner throws first in odd numbered legs. The loser throws first in the even numbered legs. Bull up for The Breaker Leg.

PLAYING RULES

All players participating in the singles events must play under their own name.

Players who qualify for stage finals will not be allowed to wear any advertising or apparel which advertises a marketable product or concern without permission.

Procedures and full tournament rules will be incorporated in the programme available at the venue. All events will be under the British Darts Organisation's supervision and their Council's decision in all matters is final.

The organisers reserve the right to alter the schedule.

The organisers reserve the right to alter the Playing Format.

All entry fees are non-refundable (unless your entry is not accepted).

The organisers reserve the right to refuse or cancel any entrant at any stage during the championships.

Any competitor not fulfilling their playing commitment by not completing all their matches will forfeit their right to all prizes and prize money in relation to this darts championship. If any expenses are incurred due to a default, the player or players responsible will be liable to any additional costs involved.

British Darts Organisation rules apply. If any player or team representative is not present at the official presentation ceremony, without the organisers/publisher permission, then that player or team representative shall forfeit the right to receive trophies, prizes or prize monies that may be due.

All competitors on day of play have free admission to the venue. The organisers reserve all advertising rights in connection with this British Open.

Dress: Jean-type trousers are not permitted to be worn during matches and presentations on stage. We expect all players to be respectably dressed. Please include a stamped self-addressed envelope with your entry form, if you require an acknowledgement.
